

NICOLE SULLIVAN

Awarded the 2019 Regional Producer Elevator Program supported by Screenworks, Screen NSW and Screen Producers Australia.

Nicole has worked across many roles in the creative sector across a wide range of platforms and is now a Production Executive with Tilt Media & Entertainment. A passionate storyteller, Nicole has written, produced and directed. Her micro documentary, Jazmin has been screened globally, receiving a judges special mention in the Byron Bay All Shorts (part of the Flickerfest schedule), A Commended Best Documentary Award at the Women of Fifty Film Festival 2022 (UK). Screened at the Melbourne Queer Festival 2022, nominated for best documentary at the St Kilda Film Festival, 2023 and was officially selected for Queer Screen's 30th Mardi Gras Film Festival, 2023 and the American Pavilion Emerging Filmmaker showcase, Cannes 2023, and is currently a contender for the 2024 AACTA Awards.

Nicole is currently in development of a comedic crime thriller set in the Australian Alps and a high concept drama set in a remote coastal town. She is also looking forward to shooting her next short, Lovebomb, scheduled for later 2023.
